

TOGETHER WE CAN MAKE A CHILD'S DREAMS COME TRUE!

Twenty years ago, a kindergarten teacher recognized a pressing need in her classroom: students were struggling with clothing insecurity, directly impacting their ability to learn and thrive. From this crucial observation, Note in the Pocket was born. What started as a grassroots effort has blossomed into a powerful community initiative, allowing us to proudly serve 10,000 children and families across Wake and Durham Counties in 2024 alone. While we celebrate these significant milestones, we recognize our mission is far from over. Thousands of local children continue to face the daily challenge of clothing insecurity, underscoring the critical and ongoing need for Note in the Pocket's work and the unwavering support of our community.

This October 23rd, we're celebrating two decades of impact with our Sneaker Ball: Bibbidi Bobbidi Boo, Dreams Come True.

This enchanting evening is dedicated to transforming lives and making dreams a reality for children in our community by clothing them with dignity and love.

With an ambitious goal to clothe 12,000 children and their families in 2025, your support is vital. By providing comfortable and confident clothing, we empower children to feel valuable, capable of learning and succeeding, and truly worthy of love.
