

Take Action on National Clothing Insecurity Awareness Day (NCIAD)

Mon
9/14

Introduce Clothing Insecurity

Clothing insecurity is the lack of well-fitting, seasonally-appropriate clothing in good condition. Since 2013, Note in the Pocket has clothed 71,400+ individuals in need of clothing. Invite others to our Open House on Sept 15th from 11-2 to learn more! 1010 MLK Jr. Pkwy in Durham

Tues
9/15

Clothing Drive Challenge Choices

- Host a clothing drive.
- Challenge a person or group to collect more clothing than you do!
- Share our wish list and/or become a Fairy Godparent.
- Shop at Evereve North Hills Fashion Fundraiser.

Wed
9/16

Volunteer Voice

Share via email or social media why Note in the Pocket's mission led you to volunteer with us and invite others to schedule a volunteer shift at volunteer.noteinthepocket.org. Don't forget to tag Note!

Thurs
9/17

Listen and Learn

Hear from clothing insecurity programs across the country as they discuss how demand for services has increased and what we can do about it. Click HERE for the link to the recording!

Fri
9/18

Shout-Outs

- Thank your NC Mayor & Council for their NCIAD Proclamation.
- Acknowledge other U.S. programs recognizing NCIAD (map).
- Thank those you recruited to volunteer or host a drive.
